

Prairie Mountain Health

Prairie Mountain Health region (shaded) is one of five Regional Health Authorities in Manitoba. The Region, which merged the former Assiniboine, Brandon and Parkland RHAs in June 2012, employs over 8,500 people.

For more information on the RHA, visit:

www.prairiemountainhealth.ca

- Population within PMH: *167,000
- Percentage of MB Population: 12.9 %
- Geographic area: 67,000 sq. kms
- Number of municipalities: 54
- Cities: (2) Brandon / Dauphin
- First Nation communities: 14
- Northern Affairs communities: 15
- Hutterite communities: 30
- Acute care sites: 20
- Acute care beds: *795
- Long term care sites: 42
- Long term care beds: *2,013
- Transitional care sites: 9
- Transitional care beds: *81
- Community Health Service offices: 34
- Mental Health Centres: 2
- Primary Health Care Centres: 5
- Community Cancer Programs: 7
- EMS (ambulance) facilities: 39
- Telehealth communities: 17
- Non-devolved facilities: 8
- Dialysis Units: 4
- Orthopedic Rehab Unit: 1
- MRI machines: 1
- CT Scan machines: 3
- Family physicians: *170
- Physician Assistants: *5
- Nurse Practitioners: *12

* numbers subject to change As of 2015